

Senior Care Centers of America Acquires Golden Years Adult Day Health Center in Bloomfield, CT

TREVOSE, PA – May 15, 2006 – Senior Care Centers of America, the second largest operator of adult day health centers in the United States, today announced the acquisition of Golden Years Day Care adult day health center located at 30 Tobey Road in Bloomfield, CT. The transaction closed on May 15, 2006.

In keeping with its branding process, the name of the center has been changed to Senior Care of Hartford. This greater Hartford area facility joins Senior Care's Middlebury center as its second adult day health service location in Connecticut.

One of the fastest growing options in the health care industry, adult day health centers provide a structured daytime program of health and social services and activities in a safe, caring environment, enabling elderly and disabled clients to live at home and remain in their communities.

Senior Care, which was founded in 1988, provides adult day health services at 20 centers located in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Mississippi. The Company is the leading independent provider in its core markets. Each adult day health center enables frail, elderly or disabled adults to live at home and remain independent in their communities while receiving health care and supervision during the day.
